June 1

La Roche-Guyon, Vernon, Giverny

Today is a celebration of Northern France's natural beauty, with an excursion to a splendid chateau and gardens situated in an equally grand setting. This is a chance to immerse yourself in the very landscape that inspired the impressionist, Claude Monet. Visit the hilltop Chateau La Roche-Guyon, surrounded by beautiful gardens and offering sweeping views over the Seine. Later, you can visit the home and gardens of Claude Monet, the inspiration for many of his beloved works. Alternatively, you may decide to take in the beautiful French countryside with a guided bus ride from Vernon to Giverny.

June 2

Rouen (Normandy Beaches)

The Normandy coast will forever be associated with the Allies' D-Day invasion, a day that vividly comes to life today on an excursion to the beaches. Immerse yourself in the tactics, desperate courage, and horrendous human cost of the 1944 Allied Invasion of France, the first step in the ultimately victorious campaign against the Third Reich.

June 3

Caudebec-en-Caux (Honfleur or Etretat)

If you are a golfer there is an opportunity to play atop Normandy's Alabaster Coast at the windy cliffs of Etretat. Not into golf? Take this opportunity to explore the beautiful Calvados countryside to seaside Honfleur, captured on canvas by generations of artists.

Rouen

Walk in the footsteps of greatness in Normandy's medieval capital, a city with a historic quarter that remains amazingly intact. From the cathedral that's been painted dozens of times to the cross marking the spot where Joan of Arc was martyred, Rouen is a treasure trove for the culturally curious. The medieval capital of Normandy, Rouen has managed to preserve much of its historic core, despite being turned into a battlefield numerous times. The roll call of famous people who lived and died in Rouen is long and varied-Richard the Lionhearted, Joan of Arc, Gustave Flaubert, and Claude Monet are among the famous people who lived or died in Rouen.

June 5

Mantes-la-Jolie (Versailles)

How did France’s rulers live over the centuries? Step into the private rooms of either the Palace of Versailles, the lavish palace built by the Sun King, or Marie Antoinette’s private hamlet to find out.
